hundred things I should love to. I must defer them till I arrive in Jamaica.

If the good friends can spare me from over any aid, will you forward it, as soon as possible. In two weeks from this date, a vessel leaves for Jamaica, by which my friends here will send me some freight & letters.

In great haste and kindest love to your dear wife & family,

Ever believe me

Your affec brother.

Edward Kinsman

Rev Alvan A Phelps
Boston

Bro Norton, did not send the saddle.

E. L. Renshaw,
Philadelphia,
May 6. 1842.

32

Philad$^a$ May 6th. 1842

Dear Bro Phelps.

I have hoped for a letter from you till now I need hope no longer for I sail tomorrow morning at 6 o'c for Baltimore, and thence to Jamaica. on Sabbath, or Monday. The funds of Bro Bowne's church & of Mr Merrick who subscribed $10. and any your friends may be disposed to add, if forwarded to this place, directed to Morris Brown 52 N. 6th. street, and it will be duly forwarded. I am sorry to say I am compelled to leave, nearly two hundred dollars in arrears; I cannot stay longer. my poor people send me word to come. come. come! and I will "come"; though I have to live as I have already lived. I hope to be saved this necessity, not for my own comfort only, but for that of my dear wife, and for the benefit of my dear poor people — for living as I did, was an injury to them, as well as to myself. I left a note for you, saying I had not seen Mr —— the gentleman with whom Mr Kirk lived, near Fremont House — I saw him after I wrote you line, & he gave me $5.

Brother L. P. Williston, has kindly become responsible for $200 for a year & perhaps longer for my station. May the Lord reward him.

I have not time to say any of the